AD HOC COMMITTEE ON INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

The Centro Interdisciplinario de Investigaciones en Psicología Matemática y Experimental (CIIPME) has been producing reports on a continuing basis dealing with cross-cultural studies of the development of mathematical and other cognitive skills. Each report is in Spanish with a brief English abstract. Contact Dr. Horacio Rimoldi, CIIPME, Cangallo 2158, 1040 Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The Foreign Affairs Information Service is establishing a Country Specialists Referral File (CSRF) of American scholars with academic or professional interests in areas outside the United States. The file will be computerized and continuously updated. It will serve as an expertise bank for foreign governments, international agencies, and the media.

The American Psychological Association Library (Melton Library) has a small collection of primary source works on Soviet Psychology. The Melton Library telephone number is, 202 833-7590.

A report on the last 12 years of German research on the effects of mass media is now available from Dr. Joe Groebel, Munsterplatz 24, D-5100, Aachen, Federal Republic of Germany, Dr. Groebel is also a point of contact for the International Society for Research on Aggression.

Ms. I. Janice Evans, Head, Department of Psychology, Bellvue Hospital, Kingston 2, Jamaica, West Indies, is seeking information on brain damage, parent counseling, cognitive development, autism, and mental retardation.

Research information on cognitive, clinical, and social issues is available from Averroes Cross-Ethnic Clearing Institute, Postbus 10135, 1001 EC, Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

The Division 19 Ad Hoc Committee on International Relations has received two papers on terrorism by Dr. J. H. Kleckner for use by persons working in this field.

DIVISION 19 NETWORK ESTABLISHED

Division 19 President-Elect A. David Mangelsdorff has announced the establishment of a Division 19 Network, a series of blocks of members who will serve to relay information to other members in the block and to pick up information from them to return up the line in cases where Division representatives need to know the opinions of the membership. The initial network representatives are listed by blocks below. The first person in each block is the "hub" and will relay information to other members of the block. If a Division 19 member wishes to know the disposition of the membership, he or she may call the "hub" persons to generate the survey. The purpose of the Network is to provide the membership a better means of transmitting their feedback to Division officers and representatives.

NEWS ABOUT MEMBERS

David Stone of Hazeltine Corporation is working on the Army Research Institute for the Behavioral Sciences' Job Skills Education Program (JSEP). A contract for this three-year effort was awarded last fall to Florida State University and the Hazeltine Corporation.

Ralph Chason retired from the USAF as of 1 December 1982. His last assignment was as Vice Commandant, Air Force Institute of Technology. Ralph is now employed as Manager of Technical Education and Training, Northrop Aircraft Services Division, Northrop Corporation, Hawthorne, CA.

The Ad Hoc Committee on Women and Minorities in the Military will sponsor a "Coffee Hour" on August 27 at 8 AM at the APA Convention. All women members of Division 19 as well as women psychologists associated with the Department of Defense or interested in military psychology are invited to attend. The meeting place will be announced later by Anne Hoiberg, Committee Chairperson.

Capt Alan Brooker, Travis AFB, has published two reports: Assessment of Brain Damage. Military Medicine, 1983, 148, and, Brief overview of the clinical neuropsychological evaluation, Psychological Reports, 1982, 51 949-950.

Anne Hoiberg was awarded the Major Louis Livingston Seaman Prize, presented at the 89th Annual Meeting of the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States on October 18, 1982. The award was for the most notable paper published in Military Medicine during 1981: "Cancer among Naval Personnel: Occupational Comparisons."

Jo Hunter's new book, Families Under the Flag: A Review of Military Family Literature, has been published by Prager Publishers, New York, NY.

Dennis Patrick Wood has co-authored a book, A Clinical Hypnosis Primer, with George Pratt and Brian Alman. It is scheduled for publication by the PCA Press, La Jolla, CA in August 1983.

Anne Hoiberg is the editor of a book, Women and the World of Work, published in 1982 by Plenum Publishing Corporation. The book is a compilation of papers presented at a NATO-sponsored symposium held in Lisbon, Portugal, August 4-8, 1980, directed by the author.

Paul Best has been appointed Senior Vice President of McFann-Gray & Associates, Inc., (MGA) and Director of the Pacific Regional Office in Monterey, CA. C. Wayne Shore is Senior Vice President and Director of MGA's Southwest Regional Office in San Antonio, TX. Howard McFann is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the 200-employee firm. MGA conducts research and development and consulting projects for DoD and private industry.

Jo Hunter will chair a Division 5-sponsored symposium, "Physical Performance Testing in the Military: Technical and Women's Issues". Sherrie Gott, also a Division 19 member, will participate in the symposium.

CALL FOR DIVISION 19 MEMBERSHIP PARTICIPATION

Members of Division 19 who wish to become more active in Division activities should contact Dr. A. David Mangelsdorff, President-elect, regarding their interests. For Division 19 to be responsive to Member concerns, feedback from the membership is required.

Currently there is a need for help with editing, writing, and coordinating the Division Newsletter. There are a number of Ad Hoc committees in need for increased Member participation. Division 19 Ad Hoc Committees include the following:

- Human Factors/Engineering Psychology
- Selection and training
- Organizational Psychology
- International Relations
- History of Military Psychology
- Psychologists in Uniform
- Inter-University Seminar on Armed Forces and Society
- Women and Minorities in the Military

In addition, there are Standing Committees which can use extra help. The Standing Committees are: Program, Membership, and Fellows. Also needed are nominations and volunteers for APA committees. There are many Division 19 activities available for Members willing to get involved in the action. Make your interests and availability known to:

Dr. A. David Mangelsdorff
 3425 Turtle Village Drive
 San Antonio, TX 78230
