

LT Anna Gai Donaldson received her Bachelor of Arts in 2015 from the University of Virginia. In 2023, she earned her Ph.D. in clinical psychology from Florida State University where she studied under the advisement of Dr. Thomas Joiner. LT Donaldson completed an accredited internship at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center and is an Active Duty licensed clinical psychologist with 2D Medical Battalion in Camp Lejeune, NC. Prior to commissioning in the United States Navy, LT Donaldson worked in several positions, including as the Director of the Statewide Office for Suicide Prevention with Florida's Department of Children and Families Office of Substance Abuse and Mental Health. Within this position, she focused on propagating suicide prevention efforts throughout the state of Florida, including the implementation of Florida's 2020 – 2023 Suicide Prevention Interagency Action Plan. Outside of clinical practice and policy administration, LT Donaldson remains actively engaged in scientific research in the areas of military suicide prevention and intervention dissemination and implementation.
